Trinity Reformed Church

6-8pm

Registration: email familiesfirst94@gmail.com

Are you curious about these Love and Logic® Classes you keep hearing about? Now's your chance to get a snapshot of the class. During this one-time class, an overview of Love and Logic Parenting will be presented, including two techniques to try with your kids.

Thanks to our generous donors, a pizza supper and childcare are offered at no cost! Bring the whole family or attend on your own. Email Allison to register for a spot.

SETTING LIMITS

In Love and Logic Parenting Classes, we learn how to set limits with our children. In the book, "Love and Logic Powder Room Reader," Dr. Charles Fay says, "It takes a tremendous amount of courage to raise respectful and responsible kids! It's not easy to set and enforce limits when we know that doing so will probably make our kids really upset in the short term." To learn more about Love and Logic's philosophy on setting limits, see the attached reading, "Setting Limits."
